Thank you for choosing Elmore Medical Center for this special moment. The birth of your baby is a special time that deserves a special place. Elmore Medical Center provides an excellent birthing experience within your community, and close to your friends and family, while providing the quality of care you expect.

Not only do our birthing suites provide a comfortable and warm place for the birth of your child, we also take care of you from the preparation of the birth to helping with questions after your baby has arrived. Our support and assistance will give you the confidence you need to help you through this exciting, but sometimes confusing time. You can feel assured, knowing that our obstetrical nursing staff are well trained and certified.

It's your labor, your baby, and our staff is here just for you
