Muhonen Joins Trinity Mountain Medical Clinic

MOUNTAIN HOME, ID (July 20, 2011) Timothy J. Muhonen, M.D., has joined the medical staff at Trinity Mountain Medical Center (TMMC). Board certified in Family Medicine, Dr. Muhonen will be accepting new patients at TMMC starting August 1. In addition to working in the clinic he will be helping to establish a Hospitalist Program at Elmore Medical Center.

"I am looking forward to working here and am willing to see anyone. I have experience working with complex patients and am use to a busy schedule" comment Dr. Muhonen

Dr. Muhonen received a Bachelor of Science in Zoology at Idaho State University and received his Doctor of Medicine at Creighton University School of Medicine in Omaha, Nebraska. He completed a Family Practice Residency in Grand Junction, Colorado and a Rural Family Practice Fellowship at Tacoma Family Medicine in Washington.

His most recent work experience has been with Presbyterian Medical Services, Farmington Community Health Clinic in New Mexico. Prior to this he worked at the San Juan Regional Medical Center, Bloomfield Health Clinic in New Mexico. He also worked for one year at Katherine Hospital in the Northern Territory, Australia, as a hospitalist, which included working in the ER, providing adult, pediatric and obstetric care, doing minor operative procedures and serving as the flight physician for the Northern Territory Aerial Medical Service.

Dr. Muhonen and his wife, Heather, are both Idaho natives. "We were interested in moving back to Idaho to be closer to family" states Dr. Muhonen. "We have two girls and our families are in Idaho Falls and Boise. We like Mountain Home because of the proximity to Boise and the area offers easy access to outdoor activities like camping and skiing and snowboarding"

Appointments can be made by calling 587-9703. TMMC is located at 465 McKenna Drive.
